INVITATION LETTER

Professor Aleksandar Skeparovski

It is our great pleasure to invite you as a Guest Lecturer at the Faculty of Sciences and Mathematics, University of Pristina in Kosovska Mitrovica, Serbia. We are impressed by your accomplishments and we believe that there is no person more competent than you are, in the field of Physics Materials and Applied Electronics. Your presence will honor us, as students will gladly learn from your knowledge and experience.

The theme of the lecture “Charge Trapping Memory Devices - Materials Challenges” will be held on Tuesday, May 16, 2023, at 11:00 AM.

We hope that this event will specify further scientific cooperation.

We look forward to seeing you soon.

Sincerely,

dr Ljiljana Gulan, vice-dean for Science, international cooperation and development
